

The Southwestern Virginia Genealogical Society

The purpose of the society is to encourage, foster, and organize genealogical research, teaching, publishing, education, recording and other activities related to genealogy.

Membership is open to anyone. Meetings are held on the third Saturday of the month at the Roanoke Public Library, 706 South Jefferson St., Roanoke, Virginia except during June, July, August and December.

The society publishes a quarterly, Virginia Appalachian Notes. All members receive a copy. It contains court records, family histories and stories, articles on genealogy, queries, and book reviews, etc. Each member can place a free 60-word query in each issue, as space permits.

An application forum is included below for your convenience.
